++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Showers easing this morning. Warmer and brighter later.

Today:
Cloudy at first with some showery rain in places, but soon easing. Bright or sunny spells developing with time, probably becoming prolonged in the north through the afternoon where it will feel warm. Sea breezes keeping eastern districts cooler however. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Tonight:
Extensive North Sea low cloud spreading inland overnight, perhaps with the odd spot of drizzle in places. Feeling rather mild. Minimum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Wednesday:
A dull and murky start for many with a few patches of light rain or drizzle. Low cloud clearing to the coast by the afternoon, with warm sunny spells developing. Maximum temperature 19 deg C (66 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Generally dull and cloudy starts Thursday and Friday with warm afternoon sunny spells and a few showers. Fresher on Saturday with extensive cloud and showers or longer periods of rain.
